PETITIONING THE COURT

The offender, not having waived a hearing, the probation officer requests that a summons be issued and hearing held to modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

Additional Supervised Release Term #5: You must submit to an initial inspection by the U.S. Probation Office, and to any unannounced examinations during supervision, of your computer equipment. This includes, but is not limited to, personal computers, personal digital assistants, entertainment consoles, cellular telephones, and/or any electronic media device which is owned or accessed by you. You must allow manual searches of these devices and the installation on your computer of any hardware or software systems which monitor computer use. The cost of the computer monitoring program is waived. You may use a computer in connection with employment if approved by the U.S. Probation Office, provided you notify your employer of the nature of your conviction and any computer related restrictions that are imposed on you. The U.S. Probation Office will confirm your compliance with this notification requirement.

Additional Supervised Release Term #6: You must participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program.

Justification

These conditions will enable the probation officer to satisfy the statutory requirements to keep informed of the conduct and condition of the defendant and report the defendant's conduct and condition to the sentencing court. Furthermore, antisocial associates provide opportunities to learn the techniques of crime and antisocial attitudes.

CAUSE

After his release from the Bureau of Prisons, Mr. Kaetz is now being supervised by the United States Probation Office for the District of New Jersey. According to the United States Probation Office for the District of New Jersey, Mr. Kaetz has filed several motions against multiple judicial officers, attorneys, and credit bureaus. Specifically, on or about April 18, 2023, he filed a Complaint of Judicial Misconduct or Disability and a Civil Action Constitutional Offense of the Separation of Powers Doctrine.

Based on Mr. Kaetz prior history of making threats, he poses a significant risk to the community. As such, on April 24, 2023, Mr. Kaetz reported to the United States Probation Office for the District of New Jersey to discuss his recent filings and the Probation Office's concerns that the filings may lead to threatening behaviors like the instant offense. Mr. Kaetz stated he has no intention of causing harm and denied researching any parties involved in his recent filings.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that a summons be issued, and a hearing held to impose the requested conditions in Mr. Kaetz' case.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on August 25, 2023

Respectfully submitted,

Nick Capaccio
